Dear Danisha Rolle,

This cover letter introduces me and my interest in the Digital Journalist position at Sports and Entertainment Today Magazine. I was excited to learn about the Digital Journalist position posted on your company website. I've closely reviewed the needs and requirements for this role and believe that my qualifications have prepared me to contribute immediate value to your organization.

I am a senior broadcast journalism student at Florida A&M University (FAMU) in Tallahassee, Florida. I will graduate from FAMU in May 2023.

Over these past four years of college, I've worked hard to hone my story development and organization skills. I interned with the Public Affairs Office during the summer of 2021, where I practiced writing feature pieces and photographing subjects. This position helped me become more focused and attentive to detail when addressing high-volume task loads to meet deadlines. I'm an intern with FAMU's Office of University Housing's Creative Marketing Team. This position has taught me the importance of being a multi-faceted journalist. I can write hard news stories, and I'm experienced with writing feature stories, sports stories and entertainment pieces.

My academic experiences have served me well in developing my organization, planning and leadership skills. I work well using clear and concise communication to interact professionally with co-workers, supervisors and customers. I look forward to speaking with you regarding my skill set and attributes, which I believe will serve as an asset to support SET Magazine's goals. I feel that I am ready and well-suited to begin this position. I am eager to take on new responsibilities with more extensive operations and higher challenges. I am a fast learner and can adapt to the fast pace of a newsroom.

I look forward to being allowed to work here, where my academic background and personal skills will be challenged and strengthened.

I ask that my application will be favorably reviewed.

Thank you,
Marissa N. Wells
